VOCATIONAL HEARING

Mattapoisett, if it withdraws from the Upper Cape Cod Regional Vocational-Technical School District, will have a difficult time getting into any District because the town would be known as a "wavering kind of town". Since it takes 5 to 6 years to form a District no one would want to include a town with that kind of reputation.

To this statement by Dr. Arthur E. Greenberg, Mr. David Haley, chairman of the Mattapoisett Board of Selectmen, replied that Mattapoisett is by no means a wavering town but rather one with both feet on the ground and facing a serious problem in a highly responsible manner.

This exchange defined the issue as over 150 Mattapoisett voters heard invited members of the Vocational District committee last Wednesday at Old Rochester Regional High School.

Mr. Haley, at the last meeting of the Upper Cape Cod Regional Vocational-Technical School committee, had announced that he had been requested to place an article before Mattapoisett's citizens calling for withdrawal of the town from the District. As he welcomed the visitors to the Wednesday meeting, he explained that the estimated cost of the school in rising from $1,875,000 to $3,741,700 in the latest estimate had prompted the unrest among a large percentage of the town's citizens.

Berthold Putman acted as moderator as questions were asked by citizens and answers were given by members of the committee. Mr. Robert LeNormand of the architectural firm began by pointing out the layout of the building and the topography of the site which is located 1/2 mile from the Bourne Bridge on the south bank of the canal.

Mr. Edgar E. Caron spoke of the number of changes that had been made since the first estimates were made. Mr. George F. Weaver, in elaborating on this, said that the smallest school that the State has found adequate is a 500-pupil school. He said that the 540-pupil plant now in mind puts the school just over State minimum.

From the assembled Mattapoisett citizens, a gentleman stated that the townspeople had believed that it was voting a Vocational school but now found itself with a Junior College planned. He asked why 4 years was not enough for the towns to support since they are already supporting a Cape Cod Junior College and a Proposed Bristol County College in the planning. He questioned the 6-year program (4 years and elective 2-year post graduate course).

Mr. George Weaver replied that employer requirements were taken into consideration in the planning. He stated that the technical program is a bonus and that equipment may be obtained from Federal Acts. He explained that the number of courses had been expanded from those that offer little scientific ability to include those that offer a great deal to appeal to a wide range of abilities. He said the State Department of Education had to approve of the courses and that their requirements determine the number in order that State money will be made available.

Dr. Arthur E. Greenberg stated that there was no sudden revealing of the new estimates but they had been available in Mattapoisett's annual report and also in a 10-page leaflet that was submitted to Selectmen and the Town Finance Committee. He said that when the State survey came in with an enrollment of 350 the committee felt that the school would be much too small at the very beginning. He said that Chapter 74 Section 2 of the Committee of Education requested a larger school and that these State requirements led to the increase from 100,000 to 134,000 square feet. He said that such increase is not unique but is standard practice. He said that the Region was formed and the committee passed on expert estimates by the State and then the State required the larger square footage and the subsequent increase in cost.

Dr. Joseph Kunces, superintendent of the Old Rochester School District, explained the difficulties of placing a student at New Bedford Vocational School which accounted for the few applications. Of 11 pupils who apply we have 1 accepted. He said that rarely do we get someone in electronics or any wanted trade. He said that the OR figures have been running this way - 1/3 to a Degree granting Institution, 1/3 to Nursing Training or Business School. The other 1/3, he said, need to be offered Vocational programs.

Mr. Haley stated that no more than 8 pupils have been enrolled in Vocational training in any recent year. At present, he said, Mattapoisett has 4 in Vocational Schools. He said that academic requirements are required for Vocational Technical High School and therefor restrictions will continue. Mr. Weaver replied to a question on academic restrictions as follows: that each year provision would be made for 41 students from Mattapoisett. Entrance examinations will be used to determine aptitude but no IQ test will be used. He said that the examination will not restrict the student but will determine the course into which he will be placed. The question was asked, "What is the proposed cost per pupil?" The questioner stated that he had computed $14,000.00 per pupil per year based on costs for the second year.

Mr. William M. Atwood explained that the State had told how to proportion costs based on the number of students in grades 1-12 on October 1 of the preceding year. He said that 7.57% is Mattapoisett's share in 1967 of capital cost based on 41 students. The town has the opportunity to send that many but must pay on that figure regardless of the total. The operating cost is based solely on the percentage of Mattapoisett students in grades 1-12 divided into the total 1-12 pupils in the Region which determines the % of cost. He said that present figures represent maximum cost before being reduced by State and Federal aid. He stated that 1/2 of the land was given by the Federal Government and 1/2 will be purchased. In addition to aid he stated that government surplus equipment will be sought.

The question was asked, "What is the cost to drop Mattapoisett out of the District?" Mr. William Croft said that $5,092.58 had been paid to date and that the estimated cost of withdrawal would be from $24,424.76 to $50,000. less the amount paid already.

Question: "What are the alternatives?" Mr. David Haley answered that Mattapoisett would be without vocational education in the foreseeable future. New Bedford is not interested, nor is Lakeville. The fact is, he stated, that there is no alternative foreseeable.

Question: "Could Vocational education be carried on at Old Rochester using the present facilities?" Dr. Kunces replied that there would be a hard job to gain sufficient population to have more than 1 or 2 departments but that it might be done - without State backing.

A citizen stated that it has become clear that the state dictated to the committee and that the committee has no more control over the school than we do. Mr. Washburn replied that the State dictated the Old Rochester school also. He said that the only way to get this school is to accept the State's requirements.

Mr. C. said that the town had voted for a Vocational High School but now we are required to have a Vocational-Technical High School. Mr. Washburn replied that the school

Dear A.H.S.

I'll take all of your starlings and bluejays if you will take my mocking bird! He doesn't eat the goodies we put out but he won't let anything else eat them either.

My cat, Vanessa, brought a Bob White home the other day and was somewhat put out when I let it go. It was my first chance to see one of these delightful birds at close range and I guess it was something of a first for him too. I think the idea of reporting birds to the "Presto" is great! The Mattapoisett Lions Club, in conjunction with the Marion Lions Club, will hold an adults' glaucoma clinic, with assistance from the Massachusetts Society for the Prevention of Blindness and Massachusetts Department of Public Health. The clinic is to be held on February 22nd, from 1:30 P.M. to 5:00 P.M. at the Mattapoisett Center School.

This clinic is aimed at adults over 35 or 40 years of age in the area that this newspaper services, and who have the desire to be tested for glaucoma. The age over 35 or 40 is used because this is the group most often afflicted with glaucoma.

Dr. John Dias, a New Bedford ophthalmologist, assisted by Dr. George Watson, will do the test for glaucoma with some preliminary tests being done by Dr. Charles Phillips and Dr. David MacFarlane, optometrists of the Mattapoisett and Marion clubs, respectively.

Anyone wishing to take advantage of this clinic should fill out the appointment form at the end of this article and leave it at Tinkham's Pharmacy in Mattapoisett or Browne's Pharmacy in Marion no later than Sunday, February 12th.

BAND IS EXCELLENT

SYMPHONIC BAND HAS SUPER SOUND

A large and appreciative audience at Bristol Auditorium of the Old Rochester Regional High School on Sunday afternoon was treated to another in the series of concerts by the Regional Symphonic Band under the direction of John R. Pandolfi. In a word, the performance was marvelous. It was a program of varied selections ranging from a vigorous Sousa march to the nostalgia of Sigmund Romberg. These musicians thoroughly enjoy the music they create together and no wonder. For Hi Fi fans, this is sound with presence. It's the big band sound that enters through the soles of your feet, vibrates through the pores of your skin and occasionally raises the hair on the back of your neck. The Symphonic Band produces an experience - a stirring one that is a treat for all of the senses. Anyone, who has not yet had the good fortune to hear this band, can be assured that it is all pleasure. Any community in the country could count itself fortunate indeed to have such a group entertain.

The Regional Civic Chorus combined with the band on the Tribute to Romberg and Gloria for very pleasing collaboration. The singers are also a talented group of musicians and the band gave the voices a rich background on which to work. DCJ

SCHOLARSHIP FOUNDATION MEETING

Since 1962, we have observed with pride the growth of the Citizens' Scholarship Foundation in our communities. Some of us have realized that a small group of hard working and enthusiastic persons have piloted this program through four arduous years. These people became excited about a grass roots scholarship program which would eventually involve everyone interested in helping youngsters obtain advanced education beyond high school. Unfortunately, several of the original group have had to drop out and few have sought to replace them. What is needed now is new blood, new people to further direct this worthwhile community enterprise. Without immediate indications from the various communities of a willingness to help and serve, this worthwhile venture which in only four years has awarded 72 scholarships for a total amount of $16,000. may be abandoned

Thursday evening, February 2, at 7:30 o'clock in the cafeteria at Old Rochester Regional High School, a meeting will be held to plan for the raising of funds for this school year. Come and meet the new officers, bring an interested friend and have a cup of coffee with us.

"TALK BACK" SERMON

SERMON "TALK BACK" ON ASH WEDNESDAY

"Talk Back" is the sermon to be preached at the First Congregational Church, Rochester Center, on Ash Wednesday. An Ash Wednesday service, the first in many years, will be presented at the church vestry on Wednesday, February 8, at 7:30 P.M. The Rev. Edward F. White, pastor, will preach the sermon and then invite those who are present to ask questions on the theme or to add their thoughts to the sermon. Refreshments and fellowship will be a part of the program. The service is being presented in cooperation with the Board of Deacons and the Fellowship of Ushers. Mrs. William Warburton will be pianist for the singing of old time gospel hymns. The public is invited.

MUSICAL PROGRAM

ART STUDENTS WORKING ON PRODUCTION OF "CAMELOT"

Art department students are a vital part of the Old Rochester production "Camelot". Designs are being prepared from which one will be chosen for the coveted prize: the cover for the program folder.

Students are also the artists for posters which will soon be on display in businesses in the area, with further information about the February 23, 24 and 25 show.

Due to the number of programs needed for capacity audiences attending four performances of "Camelot" as well as the quantity of type involved, it has been found necessary to award the contract to a commercial printer. Hiller Press has agreed to handle it this year.

Proceeds from the program folder is the only source of revenue for the work of FORAM. A nominal contribution lists a person as Booster and a larger amount is required to be a Patron. A Patron receives two tickets also.

Floyd Empey, who is in charge of programs, announces the assistance of Mrs. Marshall W.

STUDENT ART EXHIBITS

The Marion Art Center and the Cecil Clark Davis Gallery are presenting an unusual series of three exhibitions showing the study of art by residents of this area: Bourne to Dartmouth. It is the objective of the Center to show as completely as it can the scope of a training in art from the first efforts of the beginner to the work of a college senior finishing a formal study in painting. The Center wishes to show during the winter months the work of the young high school student aspiring to a career in art and those painters from the art center studio whose work is familiar in local exhibitions.

The purpose of these shows is to promote and encourage the study of art in this area and to acquaint the public with the many aspects of the training of an artist at different levels. The Center wishes to draw together the ideas and interests of individuals and the approaches and philosophies of different schools and to promote an understanding and exchange of ideas.

In order to see these works in their proper perspective there will be three exhibitions in February, March and April. From January 27 to February 22 the work of the painters from the Marion Art Center Studio will be on display. These residents from the local area, who take an active interest in painting, have helped support a studio program and thus make possible the series of shows.

The two other shows will involve the Swain School and SMTI and high school students from Bourne to Dartmouth. A juried prize for a de-

PEACE CORPS NAMES WALTER A. CROCKER, JR. ASSOCIATE DIRECTOR IN BRITISH HONDURAS

Walter Adams Crocker, Jr., a former educational administrator at Rodman Job Corps Center in New Bedford, has been named a Peace Corps Associate Director in British Honduras, Director Jack Vaughn has announced.

The 29-year old Boston native went to the Rodman Job Corps Center last January after having taught English and social studies at Central Junior High School in East Providence, Rhode Island, for 6 1/2 years. He enrolled in the Peace Corps staff training program last fall.

He is a 1955 graduate of East Providence High School. He received a bachelor's degree in education from Rhode Island College in 1959 and a master's degree in history from the University of Rhode Island in 1966.

Crocker is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter A. Crocker, Sr. of Riverside, Rhode Island.

SEAT BELTS URGED

In 1966 there were thirty-three fatal accidents on Cape Cod. Many could have been avoided if the driver and passengers had used their seat belts. New England Telephone, in conjunction with the Hyannis Junior Woman's Club, is striving to impress the importance of using seat belts on all drivers and passengers.

Together, they have launched a bumper sticker campaign as a reminder to "Make Your One for the Road Your Seat Belt". These bumper stickers are a replica of a seat belt and may be obtained from any member of the Club or from Mr. Edward G. Cross at the Hyannis Telephone Business Office.
